Getting to know you: (Please type answers and attach on a separate page)

1. In 2-3 paragraphs, please explain why you are interested in being a member of the CHS SERVE Team. Please detail what specific abilities and gifts you have that would benefit the campus community. Please also describe what you see as your personal areas of growth that may be developed through SERVE participation.
2. Briefly describe your relationship with Jesus and your current and/or previous church involvement.
3. Are there any other significant time commitments (Focus, RA, ASCBU, Sports, Job, Family Responsibility, etc.) that you think would potentially conflict with your time as a Servant Leader for the College of Health Science?

References:

Please attach two letters of reference. If reasonable, one reference should be from a CHS faculty member.

SERVE Team FAQ:

1. How much time will SERVE Team require of me?

SERVE participation is intentionally efficient to respect the fact that high performing student are very busy. You can expect to put in 2-8 hours per month depending upon which activities you take advantage of.

2. How does SERVE Team participation benefit me?

As a member of the SERVE Team you will gain access to events, speakers, and VIP guests that other students do not. You will build relationships with high performing peers. You will be trained in leadership principles. You will have greater access to faculty and administrators who can assist you with graduate school and employment opportunities. And hopefully, you will grow deeper in your relationship with Christ.

3. How do I benefit the SERVE Team or the College of Health Science?

The CHS needs students with strong academic and interpersonal skills to be ambassadors of its programs. Prospective (high school/transfer) students should have the opportunity to hear and learn from others who have walked in the shoes they hope to fill one day, so SERVE members work alongside CHS administration to provide a valuable service to those interested in studying at CBU.
