

Intercollegiate Athletics

The Athletic Department at California Baptist University is staffed by an athletic director, associate directors, assistant athletic directors, sports information director, aquatic center director, athletic trainers, strength and conditioning staff, coaches and a support staff.

California Baptist University became an active member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II in July, 2013. Within the NCAA, the Lancers compete in the Pacific West Conference (PacWest), which is comprised of thirteen (13) colleges and universities. In order to be eligible to participate in the California Baptist University Intercollegiate Athletics program, student athletes must meet all NCAA and/or PacWest eligibility requirements and rules for competition.

Spectators

Members of the campus community are encouraged and invited to attend athletic events and display school spirit throughout the school year. Students, fans, and spectators who attend events are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is respectful of athletes, officials, and others. Misconduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Harassing, heckling, or annoying players, officials, or others
- Making derogatory comments regarding or directed at player officials, or others
- Throwing or placing objects on a playing surface/field
- Interfering with the course of an athletic event
- Not adhering to event management instructions

Individuals who engage in inappropriate behavior are subject to Judicial Action which includes, but is not limited to, removal from and/or loss of the privilege to attend athletic events at CBU.

Admission to all home regular-season contests is free to Students, Faculty, and staff (and dependents) that possess a valid CBU Card. Otherwise, admission is $7 for adults and $5 for Students who attend another school and possess a current student identification card. Alumni (with a valid Alumni Card) and senior citizen admission is $3. Children under twelve (12) years of age are free.

University Colors

The official school colors of California Baptist University are navy blue and old gold.

University Mascot

The California Baptist University mascot is a mounted Lancer. During the spring semester, Students are selected to serve as the Lancer Mascot and wear the official Lancer Mascot costume during the following academic year. The primary role of Students who are selected to serve as the Lancer Mascot is to encourage campus pride, foster fan participation and promote the CBU athletic program. The cheer coach, Dean of Students (or designee), and ASCBU president collaboratively conduct the process of selecting two (2) primary and two (2) alternate/assistant Students to serve as the Lancer Mascot.

Students who serve as the Lancer Mascot must:

- Possess and maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above
- Be enrolled at California Baptist University
- Be in good standing with California Baptist University. Students who are on academic probation, upon whom Sanctions are imposed, and/or placed on judicial probation, are ineligible to serve as the Lancer Mascot

Students who are interested in serving as the Lancer Mascot must meet the aforementioned eligibility requirements and complete the Lancer Mascot application/selection process. Detailed information regarding the Lancer Mascot application/selection process, physical requirements, expectations, and compensation are available in the Athletic Department.
